

Small Group Discussion Questions (9/23/2014)

- 1) Based on your child's skill – and with the underlying assumption that they are Christians – what Spiritual gift do you believe your child has been given? Give some examples that leads you to this.

- 2) Can you think of any experiences that your children could be exposed to in order to let them have the opportunity to minister to others? These experiences could be on their own or as a family

- 3) What is the potential impact of bribing or punishing your children as they both pray about their Spiritual Gift and experiment?

- 4) Can you think of any specific requests to ask God about your children and their Spiritual Gift?

- 5) If your child were asked, would they be able to say what your Spiritual Gift is? What about your spouse? Is there anything you can do to change this?
